Sir Knights at Denver.

A letter to THE TELEGRAPH from the K. T. conclave at Denver, dated Aug 10, says:

"The Dixon Commandery Car No 21 is located the first in the line of special cars occupying the side tracks north of the Union depot at Denver, Colorado. It is on electric car line leading to all the important points in the city; to Manhatten Beach, zoological gardens and other interesting resorts. The three miles of parade was the most brilliant ever witnessed in this city. Illinois is acknowledged to be the strongest state in the procession. The electric light illuminations are indeed magnificent. In one arch are twenty five thousand lights. The Dixon special car expects to move on to Colorado Springs to-morrow, Aug. 11th. The nights are cool and the days comfortable, and all are well and enjoying the trip."

—The Y. M. C. A. of Dixon, have secured for the opening night of their coming course of literary and musical entertainments, the Walter Emerson Concert Company, which stands very high all through the east, and will next season make a western tour. Walter Emerson was a justly celebrated cornet soloist in Gilmore's band and has few rivals. He has associated with him Florence Cook, a talented young violinist. Henrietta Cheney, a soprano soloist of marked ability, Edwin M. Shovert, one of the country's most brilliant pianists, and Edith Louise Smith, a very pleasing elocutionist The date fixed for the initial entertainment is November 19th.

THE ASSEMBLY.

The Saturday afternoon hour was given to the subject of Temperance, the principal address being made by Mrs. Louise S. Rounds.

Dana C. Johnson made a stirring address on "The Young Men of America."

Mrs. Rounds prefaced her address by reading a few verses from the scripture. Her first proposition was that the morals of the people are the foundations of their prosperity.

Intemperance has not been the cause of all the evils of our land and the day, we know that there are 40 per cent of criminals to every 25 per cent of populaion. It makes people think and ask what can be done. The real worth of the state, of the church and of the home, is wrapt up in the childhood. What is a boy worth? A $1,000 bill could not buy one from the mother, but for that amount the speaker said she could buy so many men she would not know what to do with them The minds of the people are the results of their morality. The strength of the government is measured by the execution of its laws, By combining, the work can be done. Everything points to the immediate defeat of King Alcohol.

The lecture by President Ort in the evening on "The present tendencies of thought," was an able consideration of the growth and development of thought and though it might seem from its statement to be a subject incapable of any ornamentation, yet the speaker made it beautiful.

The last Sunday at the Assembly was delightfully quiet and restive and all the services were observed in keeping with the programme as announced in Saturday's TELEGRAAH. The preaching was of a high order and reflected much credit on the Reverend gentleman and the church they represent.

Mad Dog Excitement.

There came this morning an order from the Peter Coffey home, east of Dixon on the Grandy road, for the sheriff to come quick and kill a mad dog. George Stainbrook, ever ready to perform acts of public protection, requested Knigle Plein to accompany him, for the sheriff needed a man for such a hazardous mission with a cool nerve and great pluck. Knigle put on his belt of thirty-two calibre revolvers, nickle-plated, and dressing his legs in a mad-dog proof armour, made of two joints of number five stove-pipe, started in pursuit. In about an hour after, we saw Knigle, cool and calm, at his place of business, and he informed us that he had drawn out of the mad-dog hunt. In fact he said he had come to the conclusion before reaching the ice-house that he had not lost any mad dogs. We interviewed the sheriff and he stated that when he arrived at the Coffey place the dog was gone; but he had doubts about it being a case of hydrophobia. The fact is the dog had been shot by John Fritz, so the latter states, and was to a certain extent naturally mad. An interview with John leads us to believe that he was himself somewhat mad; whether or not that is the dog's condition.

This is all we know about a mad dog being loose in the woods east of this city as generally reported and which has caused considerable excitement. However, should you meet a bull dog out that way it would be as well to climb a tree.

—A young girl at Rock Island named Mary Stratton, was a couple of weeks ago led into a mock marriage by a scoundrel named Wm. H. Consdale. He got an accomplice to act as clergyman and had the mock marriage performed at Davenport. After living with him about two weeks, the girl found out the fraud, had the fellow arrested, and he is now in jail awaiting trial. Moral - Young ladies, don't be in a hurry.

—The people of Sterling are now talking of the Rock River conference of the Methodist church which is to convene in that city early next month. We suppose that the Rev. S. Earngey will as a matter of course remain here another year to officiate in the new church which he has given such earnest assistance. That would certainly be the emphatic wish of people here in Dixon outside as well as among the members of the church.

—The Freeport Journal says that the new rule recently issued by the Illinois Central, which compels passengers at every station to show their tickets to the conductor or brakeman before boarding the train, is very unpopular with the traveling public and causes passengers no end of annoyance. For instance, at the Central depot this morning a lady with a small babe in one hand and a big satchel in the other went to get on the train, but the brakeman stopped her and asked to see her ticket.

—At the meeting of the First District Lodge, I. O. G. T. held at Rockford last week, there were present 500 delegates representing about a score of lodges. The following were the officers elected: President, C A Lucas, Dixon; Superintendent Juvenile Work, Miss Stockus, of Dubuque; Secretary, C. O. Miller, of Rockford; Counsellor, R. J. Hazlett, of Rockford; Delegate to Grand Lodge, Charles A Wood, of Dixon. The next meeting of the lodge will be held at Byron, in March, 1893.

—The Dekalb Review relates that during his recent trip to Europe, Hon. Samuel Dysart, of Franklin Grove, visited the scene of the Great Napoleon's defeat at Waterloo, and there made a rather remarkable discovery, namely that on his Lee County farm, he had an exact duplicate of this historic spot. The measurements, the ravines, the hills, the vales, are practically identical in the two places. History repeats itself, so also does nature. Mr. Dysart takes great pride in pointing it out to his visitors.

CRIMINAL WORK.

Supposed to Have Been Done by Strikers.

THE TORCH AND TRAIN-WRECKING.

Methods Used at Buffalo to Win a Fight for Higher Pay—A Passenger Train Crowded with People Thrown from the Track—Several Incendiary Fires in the Yards—Supposed Scabs Driven from a Train—Lawlessness in Tennessee—Convicts Sent Away and Stockade Burned—Talk About Homestead.

BUFFALO, Aug. 15.—On Saturday the switchmen in the Lehigh Valley, the Erie and the Buffalo Creek yards at this city struck for about 20 per cent. increase of wages and immediately proceeded to tie up things in the usual style. Saturday night at the D., L. and W. bridge in the Erie yards at East Buffalo a switch was turned and four cars of freight were thrown from the tracks. A police patrol wagon hurried to the scene, but could find nobody to arrest. It is charged that the strikers turned the switch in order to prevent the train from going out of the yard, but they deny it.

Incendiary Fire Beaks Out.

Yesterday morning a much more serious charge was brought against them. At 1:45 a. m. three fires were started simultaneously in different parts of the Lehigh Valley freight yards at East Buffalo. The fires were well-planned and the plot well executed. The fires were started where the cars were thickest and no hydraunts from which water could be obtained and at a time when the yards were deserted. Eighteen freight cars loaded with merchandise and two passenger coaches, together with two office buildings, were completely destroyed. The cost of the blaze was $75,000.

The Deviltry Kept Up.

This didn't seem to satisfy the vandals whoever they were, for a train of fifteen coal cars which was standing on a coal trestle was started down the incline and crashed into an engine at the bottom, wrecking it and a water crane. And later eight cars were wrecked on the Erie. Matters didn't improve yesterday. An incoming train was boarded by men on the watch for "scabs" and about fifty men were driven from it. Several men were assaulted during the day. The supposed "scabs" ran in every direction, except one, Henry Schrader, who was so badly hurt that he had to be carried to the hospital, where he said he came here to work as a switchman.

The Worst Case of Violence.

The Hornellsville accommodation train was derailed last evening. There were four coaches crowded with passengers, many standing on the platforms. As the train slowed down to about four miles an hour to run into the station a switch was thrown and the train sent bumping over the ties. The baggage car was thrown across the track and he first coach sent over to one side. It was a miracle that no one was killed. But by good fortune no person was even severely hurt.

Some More Incendiarism.

The excitement over the wrecking of the train had not died down when the strikers had a new sensation ready. At about 10 o'clock a fire was started among a number of standing Lehigh Valley empty freight cars about half a mile from the city limits. After the destruction of about twenty-five cars the flames were subdued. The whole police reserve has been ordered on duty and the situation is hourly growing worse.

Perishable Goods Stalled.

Many switches were turned during the day, and to avoid danger the engineers of all trains were given positive orders to run carefully through the Buffalo yards and watch for open switches. During the afternoon a train of perishable goods on the Buffalo & Southwestern division of the Erie was boarded by men between Seneca street and the Western New York and Pennsylvania crossing and the pins pulled from every car, stalling the train.

The Strike Will Spread.

It was something over an hour before the train could be moved into the yards. The roads which will probably be tied up next are the New York Central and West Shore. The strike on the Erie and Lehigh Valley lines has extended to Waverly and Sayre on the Lehigh, and freight traffic on that line is at a standstill. A train of beef stands on an Erie siding there, the switchmen refusing to allow it to be switched to the Lehigh tracks to proceed to its destination.

MORE TROUBLE IN TENNESSEE.

It Causes Its Governor to Use Some Forcible Language.

CHATTANOOGA, Aug. 13.—Before many more hours another section of Tennessee will be under martial law and another branch of the Tennessee standing army will be quartered on the people of the state. At 9 o'clock Sunday 300 convicts were put on board the cars at Tracy City, a small place on the mountain near Sewanee, to be sent to Nashville. A few moments later the rude buildings in the stockade of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railway company were in ashes. The free miners had again arisen and taken the solution of the convict question into their own hands.

Guards Not in the Way.

About daylight Saturday a committee woke Superintendent Nathurst and demanded that free men be given the work of the "zebras." The superintendent saw that a storm was coming and strengthened his guards. He then took an assistant and went out among the men. They were surly and had no encouragement for him. At 9 o'clock the guards saw 150 men, about half of them armed, advancing on the stockade. The guards were cowardly and made no fight. The miners took the place.

Sent the "Zebras" to Nashville.

A stolen switch engine with nine flat cars, which the miners captured, was started down the mountain loaded with convicts. The train was bound for Nashville, with 300 helpless convicts aboard, under a guard of miners armed to the teeth. Six miners were in the cab forcing the engineer to make time. The cause of the trouble was that slack trade caused the company to put the free labor on half time, while the convicts were kept at work from dawn till dark. The free miners demanded that they be put on full time or that they be allowed to work the same hours as the convicts. This was refused.

Swear to Kill the Militia.

As soon as the convicts were started the telegraph wires were cut and a guard placed over everything to prevent carrying the news down the mountain. The miners do not seem afraid of the troops and appear to think themselves numerous enough to resist anything that can be sent against them. All over the coal region in this state the militia has come to be as a red rag in the face of a mad bull. The miners swear to exterminate them.

Think They Have the Fight Won.

The miners at Tracy City passed a quiet day Sunday. They are confident that convict labor will never be re-established there and will probably resist any attempt to take the convicts back. Despite the general confidence the more conservative ones are apprehensive of the abandonment of the mines there altogether, which event would prove a terrible calamity, as the entire town is dependent on the mines for support. The telegraph lines have been repaired and inspection of trains has been abandoned. The men are well supplied with arms and ammunition.

The Governor Somewhat Emphatic.

A telegram from Nashville states that Governor Buchanan has been notified, and the adjutant general left immediately for the scene. He has arranged for 200 militia to meet him at Cowan. The other soldiers at Coal Creek have been ordered to the scene. The scheme of the miners was to draw the soldiers away from Coal Creek and then release the convicts there. Governor Buchanan says he has enough of "this d——d foolishness" and is going to put a check to it for all time. Buchanan has backbone and will fight the miners, it is confidently believed. Only the most meager communication can be had. It is probable a general order will be issued to the state militia to assemble at once at Knoxville.

THE STRUGGLE AT HOMESTEAD.

Statements by Labor Leaders and Lovejoy That Differ Widely.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 15.—Saturday a statement to the American public was issued, signed by the Federation executive committee, the Homestead advisory committee and the Amalgamated association, the leading signers being Gompers, Weihe and O'Donnell. The statement says Carnegie's company is one of the most gigantic monopolies of the age, and has undertaken to reduce the wages of employes from 10 to 40 per cent. It refers to the 6th of July and the Pinkertons, and says the company endeavored to introduce "pauperized and degraded laborers to supplant our fellow-American workmen."

Wages and Condition of the Men.

It denied that munificent wages were paid and asserts that the wages of only 12 and of 3,421 averaged $7.50 per day, 46 received from $5 to $7, 54 averaged $4 to $5, 1,177 from $1.68 to $2.50, 1,625 14 cents per hour, or less. Only 8 to 10 per cent. own their homes, 15 per cent. have homes under mortgage and the others pay rent. Notwithstanding the militia only 600 men are in the mills and only twelve of them are skilled.

Appeal for War Sinnes.

The statement closes with an appeal for funds, which are needed at once. The assurance is given that every dollar contributed will be well spent in the cause of organized labor, and every wage-worker and liberty-loving citizen is urged to contribute. Contributions can be sent to William Weih, 512 Smithfield street, Pittsburg, and Thomas J. Crawford, box 196, Homestead, should be notified.

Gompers Makes a Speech.

A meeting was held at Homestead Saturday afternoon, at which speeches were made by several leaders, including Gompers. The latter said that the company had an enormous monopoly of steel bullets and wanted a scale based on that product which they controlled. The firm spread rosy reports about the men who made large wages, but did not refer to the hovels occupied by the majority of the men, such as the speaker had seen. The steel workers had made such men as Carnegie possible. Secretary McGuire of the Federation made a speech in which he attacked the militia.

Lovejoy's Reply to Gompers.

Referring to Gompers' speech Secretary Lovejoy, of the Carnegie company, said yesterday that Gompers' statement that the company had a monopoly on steel billets was absurd. There were many competitors in Pittsburg, besides the Illinois Steel company, the Pennsylvania Steel company and the Cambria Iron company. The Carnegie mills made about 30 per cent of the steel billets. No man employed at Homestead got less than $1.40 per day. The statement that only 600 men were at work in the mill was met by the assertion that there were 1,500, all skilled, and he stood ready to prove it.

Regarding the Pinkertons.

Said Lovejoy: "The criticism on our bringing Pinkertons to Homestead has no weight in the face of the law, which permits any man to properly protect his property against trespassers, and who, in the words of Judge Ewing, may fire numerously and effectively against any mob that attacks his property. No threat has been made by any member of the company that prosecutions would follow a boycott. We now say, however, that we will simply rely upon the law to protect ourselves against any conspiracies that may be hatched."

The Behring Sea Cases.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—The state department has practically completed its preparation of the United States' contentions in the Behring sea cases, and the manuscript has been sent to the printers. Upon its return copies will be sent to the secretary of state for home affairs of Great Britain in accordance with the terms of the treaty. Senator Morgan, one of the arbitrators in the controversy held a consultation with Secretary Foster at the state department Saturday.

Killed by a Train.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 15.—Lewis S. Heins, superintendent of the Chester Heights Camp meeting association, was struck by a Philadelphia and Baltimore Central railroad train at Chester Heights shortly before 7 o'clock Saturday morning and killed. He lived at 1911 Lombard street, in this city, and was on his way to the station to take a Philadelphia train when killed.

Using Carnegie Material.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 15.—Work on the new gymnasium of the Cleveland Athletic club has been stopped because the contractors are using Carnegie material. It is also stated that work on the Cuyahoga, a new seven-story structure in the heart of the city, will be stopped for a similar reason.

Iron Works Shut Down.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Aug. 15.—All the departments of the Jefferson iron works of this city are shut down in consequence of the refusal of the managers to recognize the Amalgamated association.

CHURCH FIGURES.

Interesting Statistics From the Eleventh Census.

PROGRESS MADE IN FORTY YEARS.

Methodism Retained the Leads in Value of Property, But Roman Catholicism Is Coming on Rapidly and Numbers 2,000,000 the Most Communicants—Bewildering Subdivisions on the Baptist Connection—Peculiarity of the "Brethren"—Number of Religious Denominations.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Superintendent Robert P. Porter, in an address prepared for delivery yesterday at Asbury park, makes public the preliminary figures of the church statistics of the eleventh census, which are both curious and interesting. There are shown to be in the United States nearly 150 separate and distinct church organizations holding widely different creeds. They vary greatly in practice and represent all possible variations of church polity. There are a dozen different branches of the Presbyterian family. There are some denominations that will answer only to the simplest, most indefinite title—such as the various churches that claim to be simply "Brethren." Four of these are branches of what are popularly called "Plymouth Brethren," but they do not own the title "Plymouth," nor is there any designation which they have adopted by which these four bodies of "Plymouth Brethren" may be distinguished from other Brethren.

Didn't Like to Be Enumerated.

There are two "Reformed" Churches, known as the "Reformed Church in America" and the "Reformed church in the United States." Some of the denominations were never numbered before, and it required the utmost powers of persuasion to induce them to submit to the process. Sects have been found and enumerated who claim less than 100 communicants. Here are seven sects which altogether number only about 4,000 members and yet own church edifices worth $70,000—Shakers, Amanaites, Mennonites, Harmony, Separatists, New Icarian and Altruists. All societies observing the communal life, whether founded on a religious or secular basis, are embraced in the returns. Two of these societies are not religious, the Icarian and Altruists, but are organized to apply a social principle.

Split Fine Theological Hairs.

After the seven great denominations—Congregational, Lutheran, Methodist, Presbyterian, Roman Catholic, Baptist and Episcopal—have been accounted for the other 134 religious associations represent less than 15 per cent of the church edifices and less than 11 per cent of the aggregate value of church property. Some of the subdivisions of the Baptist churches are peculiar. The uninitiated person finds it difficult to define the difference between the "Seventh Day" and the "Sixth Principal" Baptists; between the "Mud-Head" Baptists and the "River Brethren"; between the "Primitive" and the "Free Will"; between the "Original Free Will" and the "Old Two Seed in Spirit"; between the "General" and the "General Free Will." Besides these there are also the "Regular South", the "Regular North" and the "Regular Colored Baptists." The Society of Friends is divided into the Orthodox and Hicksite, the Wilburite and Primitive branches. There are seventeen or eighteen different branches of the Lutheran churches in this country.

The Number of Church Building.

The following table shows the number of churches in the United States to-day as compared with forty years ago:

	1850.	1890.
Congregational	1,706	4,736
Lutheran	1,221	6,599
Methodist	13,348	44,244
Presbyterian	4,856	12,463
Roman Catholic	1,227	8,769
Baptist	9,360	39,412
Episcopal	1 461	5,605
All other	5,007	20,471
Total	38,183	142,256

PROPERTY AND COMMUNICANTS.

Roman Catholics Second in the First and First in the Second.

The value of church property for the same period is as follows:

	1850.	1890.
Congregational	$ 7,970,195	$ 43,395,437
Lutheran	2,884,286	34,218,234
Methodist	14,826,148	130,018,070
Presbyterian	14,757,089	94,876,233
Roman Catholic	9,256,758	118,381,516
Baptist	11,001,127	68,028,520
Episcopal	11,384,210	73,586,201
All other	15,586,558	88,777,080
Total	$87,446,371	$631,221,303

Some Comparative Per Centages.

In point of numbers the Methodists stood first in 1850 and still retain the position. Nearly one-third of all the church edifices belong to the Methodist church, while the Baptists can lay claim to more than one quarter. Relatively speaking, the Episcopal church retains about the same position to the other denominations as it did in 1850. On the other hand, the Roman Catholic church has advanced considerably, from a trifle over 3 per cent. of the total number to over 6 per cent. In point of value, however, the Roman Catholic church has made still greater strides, from an ownership of 10⅝ per cent. of all the church property to an ownership of 18¾ per cent. In this respect the Roman Catholic church now ranks second in importance, being exceeded only by the Methodist, which returns a trifle over 20½ per cent. of the total value. In 1850 the value of church property of four denominations—Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist and Episcopal, outranked the Roman Catholic church in this respect.

Figures on Church Membership.

According to the returns of the eleventh census the number of communicants in five principal religious denominations for which the statistics have been computed are as follows:

	No. Communicants.
Congregational	512,771
Lutheran	1,199,514
Methodist	4,589,377
Presbyterian	1,278,815
Roman Catholic	6,250,045
Total	13,496,522

The communicants of the Baptist and Episcopal with those of other denominations will bring the aggregate up to about twenty million in all.

The Colored Denominations

The statistics of the colored denominations likewise show great progress. Their denominations are divided into Regular Baptist, Primitive Baptist, African Methodist Episcopal, African Union Methodist Protestant, African Methodist Episcopal Zion, Colored Methodist Episcopal, Evangelical Missionary Church, Cumberland Presbyterian, Disciples of Christ, Roman Catholic, Protestant Episcopal, Methodist Episcopal, Methodist Episcopal South, Methodist Protestant, other colored Methodists and Congregationalists. They have a total membership of 2,379,160, and own church property valued at $13,403,000.

Women Wild for Cheap Goods.

ZANESVILLE, O., Aug. 15.—War between rival dry goods dealers, Drucker and Sturtevant, over corset sales, led to a mob of women taking possession of each store, breaking show cases and counters and compelling the proprietors to close their doors. Rivalry had been going on for a week and finally corsets were advertised for Saturday at 5 and then 1 cent. Nearly 1,000 women surrounded each store and after the doors were closed one dealer threw corsets from a second-story window and the women scrambled in the street for them.

G. A. R. Encampment for '93.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—The department officers of the Indiana Grand Army of the Republic, who are working to have the next national encampment located at Indianapolis, returned home from this city yesterday. All the prominent Grand Army men they approached for support extended it heartily, and the understanding is that the Illinois department will vote solidly for Indianapolis at the coming encampment.

Looks Like Mary Ought to Win.

LANCASTER, O., Aug. 15.—What is expected to be one of the biggest legal fights ever known in the state will follow a suit filed here. In 1876 J. J. Winegardner married Mary Miller on an anti-nupilal contract by which she was to receive a $1,000 annuity. She nursed Winegardner ten years. When he died a few days ago it was ascertained that his estate was worth close to $1,000,000 and his will ignored his wife. She will fight.

Bride, Widow and Maniac in a Day.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 15.—Among the maniacs at the Longview asylum is a woman who but a few hours before was a happy, smiling bride. Her name is Mrs. Nancy Smith. She was married Saturday morning and started by train on a bridal tour. Her husband left the train for a trivial errand and in getting aboard again fell under the wheels and was ground to a pulp. The young wife saw the terrible occurrence.

Made Love by Letter.

SAGINAW, Mich., Aug. 15.—A marriage tinged with romance took place in this city Friday night when Mrs. Stella Woodruff, a prominent society leader here, was wedded to G. W. Paine, a leading merchant of St. Johns. Three months ago the two were introduced by letter, and then begun a correspondence which ended with the wedding ceremony. They did not see each other until an hour before the wedding.

International Monetary Conference.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—It is announced at the state department that owing to the change of government in Great Britain it has not been possible as yet to agree upon the time and place of holding the proposed international monetary conference. It is expected that this matter will receive the early attention of the coming British minister.

The Experience of a Trained Nurse.

A experienced nurse has a better opportunity to judge of the value of a remedy than a person in any other capacity. Her testimony is even more valuable than that of a physican. The following letter therefore is the most flattering testimonial to the virtues of Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure that could possibly be given

Chicago, Ill., May 26, 1892.

Sylvan Remedy Co., Peoria, Ill.

Gentlemen:—I am a regular registered nurse of several years pratice and experience in Chicago and suburbs, and can give the highest reference as to my standing and respectablity as such a nurse. Please allow me to tell those suffering, about Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure and what it did for two very sick patients I was called upon to care for. The first one was very large fleshy gentleman, whose temperature was very high, breathing very difficult, and incessant coughing. I sent to the drug store at once for a bottle of Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure, giving it right to the minute on time, shaking the bottle thoughly before using it. Give regularly, for carlessness in this is the trouble with so many. Now before morning this terrible sufferer was breathing easily, skin moist and fever broken. Do not stop yet. Keep on with the remedy, and in a severe case, as this one was, you will be suprised at the effect, as n w he commences to rise and such quantities that in case of typhoid pneumonia as this gedtleman was down with, you could exclaim with me that Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure is a wonderful remedy. I would love to tell more of its wonderful success here this past season, and my other patients who are very sick, but with the remedy and care got up from their sickness in good condition. I shall be pleased to answer all letters on inquiry.

AGAINST HIS WILL.

A Would-Be Suicide Is Bravely Rescued.

GALLANT ACT OF AN ARMY OFFICER

Lieutenant McDonald Plunges Into the Water, Clothes and All to Save a Man Who Wanted to Shuffle, and Who Ferociously Desisted Rescue—A Desperate Struggle in the Water in Which the Lieutenant Comes Near Death Himself.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Lieutenant Arthur McDonald, of General Howard's staff, is a hero. A few minutes before 12 o'clock on Saturday night he rescued from the dark waters of the New York bay a man who had thrown himself from a passing ferryboat with suicidal intent. Dressed in his gold embroidered uniform, Lieutenant McDonald plunged into the bay to the rescue. The man was determined to die, and savagely fought the officer when he approached. He deliberately and repeatedly struck and kicked at the lieutenant, and when he failed to fight off his rescuer he endeavored to drown him by catching him by the throat and forcing his head beneath the water.

Had to Fight It Out Alone.

For fully fifteen minutes the brave officer fought and struggled with the man before he succeeded in subduing him and keeping him afloat until help came. The terrible struggle was witnessed by the pilot, the deckhands and the few passengers on the ferryboat Atlantic, from which the man dived. They would have gone to the brave officer's assistance, but owing to the strong currents at that point the ferryboat could not be manoeuvered quickly and brought alongside. The small boat's rigging, too, became fouled and it could not be lowered in time.

Did the Deed Deliberately.

Lieut. McDonald was standing on the forward deck of the governor's island boat, which was lying at her landing, when the Atlantic passed by on her way to Brooklyn. When the ferry boat was almost abeam Lieut. McDonald saw a man clamber over the railings on the after deck and deliberately jump overboard. He disappeared beneath the foam-crested waves in the wake of the vessel. Some persons standing on the after deck raised the cry of "Man overboard." Instantly there was a great commotion on the vessel. The passengers rushed astern, the ferry boat was stopped and life preservers were thrown overboard in promiscuous fashion.

Struck His Rescuer on the Ear.

The man's body had scarcely disappeared beneath the surface when the lieutenant, clad in his uniform, dived overboard and struck out for the spot. Being a powerful swimmer he was soon alongside the would-be suicide, who had reappeared by this time. The latter attempted to swim away from his rescuer and dived twice in his attempts to get out of reach. McDonald followed, and overtaking the fellow, after they had gone twenty yards, started to help him toward the beach. It was then that the man struck the lieutenant, taking him entirely unawares, and planting a blow alongside his ear which made the plucky soldier's teeth rattle. He let go his man for an instant. The latter then threw up his hands and went down.

Couldn't Let Him Drown.

"I thought I had a maniac to deal with," said the lieutenant, in telling the story, "and I felt a little wary at him when he came up the second time. I couldn't let him drown, and so tackled him again. I tried to knock him out with a blow behind the ear, but he came near mastering me instead. He kicked, bit and struggled and cursed while I attempted to grab him by the hair and pull him over on his back. He was as powerful and as active as an athlete, and gave me a tussel which I will never forget.

Not at All Thankful.

The ferryboat's deckhands managed, after considerable difficulty, to bring a boat to the lieutenant's help and took him and the would-be suicide aboard. When the man had been revived he said his name was Fritz Fritch and he lived at No. 69 Bowery. He was tired of life, he said. He expressed regret that he had not succeeded in his intention. Lieut. McDonald was landed at the Governor's island pier.

TEMPLARS IN A WRECK.

Their Special Train Leaves the Track and Hurts Fourteen Persons.

CLINTON, Iowa, Aug. 15.—About noon Saturday as a special train bearing Knight Templars from Denver to their homes in the east was nearing the city the truck of one of the sleepers left the track on the bridge over Mill creek. The train was running on special time and rapidly, having made the run to Clinton from Cedar Rapids, eighty-one miles, in just one hour and forty-five minutes. This would have caused the train to run some of the distance at the rate of a mile in less than a minute. When the car left the track it caused the two rear cars to lurch from side to side, the rear one when it left the track going sideways down the steep bank.

Names of Injured Passengers.

But one car went entirely down the bank, the others remaining on the grade but off the rails. In this car where twenty-four persons. There were fourteen persons injured, viz: Reuben Beisel, Hazeltown, Pa., serious internal injuries, may die; Charles E. Brinkman, Leighton, Pa., leg and back bruised and scalp cut; S. S. Cook, Newton, N. J., shoulder and leg hurt; Mrs. S. S. Cook, Newton, N. J., back and hips injured; Dr. C. K. Davidson, Stanhope, N. J., right eye injured, shoulder bruised and nose cut; V. H. Everhart, Easton, Pa., forehead cut, left leg bruised, back sprained; J. W. Fitts, Washington, N. J., back sprained; Mrs. Harvey Haines, Easton, Pa., scalp wound; C. W. Obert, Leighton, Pa., leg bruised and foot cut; John Pursell, Phillipsburg, N. J., right arm cut and left leg bruised; Mrs. Charles Rhode, South Bethlehem, Pa., head bruised, nose and mouth cut; Miss Edith Roder, Easton, Pa., head cut; Samuel S. Wills, Stanhope, N. J., wrist sprained; Miss Leonora Wills, Stanhope, N. J., scalp wound.

Bank Charter Extended.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—The corporate existence of the Washington National bank of Washington, Ind., has been extended to Aug. 22, 1912. The First National bank of Pender, Neb., capital $50,000, has been authorized to begin business.

The Knight Templars have all left Denver for home or points of interest in the west.

PATCHING UP A COMPROMISE.

Seems What the Iron Hall Litigants Are Doing Now.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 14.—The investigation of the affairs of the Order of the Iron Hall stopped suddenly in Judge Taylor's court Saturday. It was expected that Supreme Justice Somerby would resume the stand, but when court convened the attorneys on both sides went into private consultation, remaining closeted for an hour. Then J. W. Sayre, supreme adjuster of the order, was put on the stand. He testified that he had been appointed to his office by Somerby, with the written understanding that he was to support Somerby in everything he did "for the good of the order." He stated that he had not been confirmed by the trustees until Friday. The plaintiff's attorneys stated that they desired a continuance until Wednesday to prepare some figures for submission to the court which could not be prepared until then. The request was granted.

It is a strange outcome that the northern Cheyennes, who fought against our troops more desperately than any of the other tribes, have their reservation established on the Rosebud near the field where Crook fought and within sight of the Custer battlefield. They are a brave and spirited tribe—the Spartans of the Indian race—and are held in more respect by their white neighbors than any other breed of savages. Poor fellows! Pinched with hunger as they have been, they have refrained from breaking the law, and many a generous ranchman has given them an occasional beef to "make their hearts feel good" during the hard times which seem ever to remain with this proud, gallant and justly renowned tribe of native Americans. Under favorable conditions the Cheyennes would sustain the pen pictures of Fenimore Cooper. They are the Mohicans of the west.—Cor. Chicago Tribune.

Fires in New York City.

Do you know at what time fires usually break out? Is it during the busy, hustling hours of the day or during the still, silent hours of the night? The report of the fire commissioners answers the query. The average number of fire alarms in a year in New York city is a little more than 4,000, which is at the rate of more than ten alarms a day. Less than one-quarter of the fires start between 11 p. m. and 7 a. m., while about three-quarters start between 7 a. m. and 11 p. m. Oddly, the alarms are rarest between 6 and 7 a. m., when fires for household and business purposes are kindled generally. The busiest time for firemen is between 8 and 9 p. m., about the time that fires for household purposes go out. There is no particular difference in days regarding the frequency of fires, except that they are materially fewer on Fridays than on any other day of the week.—New York Sun.

Enoch Self's two-year-old daughter, Bessie, caught her left hand in the knives of a lawn mower last Friday afternoon, and cut off the first three fingers at or near the first joint. Cubeb Cough Cure—one minute

The world renowned pianist—Wm. H. Sherwood says; "It is a matter of great satisfaction to me to note the remarkably advanced position the Mt Carroll Seminary, Ill, has taken in its admirable schedule for the improvement and comfort of its students. Especially in the department of musical art is its standard unquivocally high, and is based upon the soundest principles of musical culture and practical value, in both vocal, instrumental and theoretic branches. The methods employed are, as far as my knowledge of the subject goes, the BEST EXTANT, while the artistic culture and enthusiasm of the well equipped teachers in that field is worthy of the most highly renowned standarads of our musical capitals Upon correct methods in music must the future of art depend."
